SANER CARE OF THE CHILDREN

This is One of the Crying Needs of the Modern Church—Rev. James T. Marshall of Washington at Park Church—Union Service Show Present-day Problems

Young Man of Vision.

Among the captives was a young man whose name meant Then God Will Strengthen. He sat in this land of exile and saw visions which burn like words of fire. In one of these visions he goes back to the temple at Jerusalem and sees the five and twenty men with their backs turned toward the Lord and their faces toward the east. They are a picture of the apostasy of Judah and a prophecy of her resulting destruction. It is a picture of recurring history—one that is not unknown today.

Backs Turned to God.

In this United States of America there are today 25,000,000 men with their backs turned to God. The church is succeeding in her task of turning these men around? Is the Christian church declining? Is a question that is discussed in the sermon.

So, what is the matter? Right or wrong the impression has gone abroad that the church is declining. Magazines are discussing the subject, freely in articles like those in Collier's and the Atlantic. The great popularity of Winston Churchill's book is an account of his treatment of this idea.

The Decline of the Church.

Statistics show that there has been a loss of thousands in the church membership in Germany and in the United States. In Germany the church attendance fell off 18,000 in Liverpool, although the population gained. There are 81,000,000 people in the United States, of these 36,000,000 belong to the Christian church. That leaves 25,000,000 who are outside of any church.

Of course this includes the children, the infirm and the idiots, who cannot very well be in a church. But even then the proportion is not as it should be. 3,700 churches last year reported no additions to their membership by admission. There are churches that are not doing their work. The country churches are going down or going out of existence everywhere.

City Churches Short Lived.

City churches as a rule are short lived. Why is all this? It is a complex question and we are not wise enough to answer it. The reason for it is today's unbounded material prosperity. There are so many things to do in the city that the church is being crowded out.

These are all very spectacular, and shall this and other things be the end of the church? They are ready to see an immense bridge across a wide river, but the bridge between sin and holiness is not so easily made. The fine automobile road is more tangible than the broad highway to heaven.

A Satisfied Age.

This is a satisfied age. These worldly people are having too good a time. They are too busy enjoying themselves to find time for higher and better things.

COLCHESTER MAN HELD UP TRUNK.

Hyman Elster Got in Trouble With This Method of Collecting Bill.

On a warrant issued by State Attorney Hull, Hyman Elster of Colchester was arrested at Colchester on a charge of highway robbery in holding up Mrs. Gussie Cohen of New York and taking a trunk containing jewelry and other valuables valued at $117. The arrest was made by State Policemen Jackson, Downing and Ruder.

The holdup was the result of a dispute over a bill. Elster claimed that Mrs. Cohen owed him $7 for repairing a carriage, but the latter alleged that the amount was $10. Mrs. Cohen refused to pay it. Monday Mrs. Cohen, who has been summering in Colchester, started for New York on the noon train and took Mrs. Cohen's trunk, containing her clothing and jewelry, as property. The driver of the vehicle made no effort, it is stated, to resist Elster.

Complaint was made to the state attorney and a warrant was issued for Elster's arrest. The state policeman went to Colchester Friday and found the accused in his carriage repair shop. They were also armed with a search warrant. When the warrant was served on him Elster started to resist by holding onto the building and making cries which attracted a large crowd of spectators, several of whom threw stones at the fugitive. Elster, in sympathy, causing considerable trouble to the officers in making the arrest.

Elster was presented before Justice of the Peace Myron R. Ables and the case continued, the accused being held upon bonds of $300, which he furnished.

21 REPUBLICANS MADE AGAINST 17 DEMOCRATS

The Registrars Listed 38 New Voters at Their Two August Sessions.

The work of the Norwich registrars, Tyler D. Guy and Cornelius J. Downes at their two sessions on August 1 and 8 disclosed no startling severings of old political affiliations, the only feature that provided unusual interest is the rallying around the old republican standard, for of the voters made, 21 allied themselves with that party, outdoing by a margin of four the democrats, who can claim but 17. There was absolutely no evidence of third party sentiments. These names will be added to the lists that may be, but never have been used for the own cause this fall. These lists will be ready on Thursday and the town clerk will receive 25 copies, the chairman of the committees will have some for and by the new enactment of the general assembly candidates for office may secure one or more if they so desire.

Unknown Man Was Buried.

The body of the unknown man who was killed by the Central Vermont train at Uxbridge on Thursday day was buried Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Uxbridge street cemetery.

The service was conducted by Rev. C. A. Northrup. The body was kept at the morgue of Church & Allen for two days but no trace to his identity could be found.

Traveling Through the Southland.

Home in Norwich for a vacation after traveling commercially since the first of the year, through Georgia, the Carolinas and West Virginia, J. J. Riordan, formerly clerk at the Waukegan, is greeting many friends about town. Mr. Riordan is finding his new line of work congenial and is prospering.

better things. The theater managers will tell you that they find it hard to discover new thrills enough to attract. Men declare that they wouldn't cross the street to hear the best sermon in the world. One man at church time was in a bathrobe sending the hall boy for a Sunday paper and a high-bellied waiter came in with a man like that? Or if they don't stay at home there are outings everywhere. Traveling is so easy that not like former times when there was no means of conveyance to the park even.

How is a situation for which the church and the minister are not responsible.

The Other Side of the Question.

Then, too, we must look at the other side of the question. Church membership is one thing and the Kingdom of God is another thing. And these two are not always identical. More than 26 millions are following God in our country. There are whole classes of Christians who are not church members. These are the men who are the backbone of the nation. At 3:30 o'clock a touching tribute was paid the late Charles W. Tubbs, for years leader of Tubbs' band. Under the direction of Mr. King the band rendered Columbian Commandery March, which Mr. Tubbs composed on Oct. 2, 1889, and Old Hundred, his favorite hymn. When the band started to play the music a sudden hush and every man on the grounds stood with head bowed until the last notes of Old Hundred died away.

The band was served at 4 o'clock under the direction of the Benoit-Sullivan clambake club, following which the band played for some time. All highly pleased with the decided success of the day.
